CATHEDRAL LIFE WEEKLY

First Sunday of Lent, 5 March 2017

Cathedral welcomes Council to special Evensong service

A SPECIAL EVENSONG is being held this afternoon at 3.30pm giving thanks for those involved in the civic life both of the city and the county.

The Cathedral has a long association with Essex County Council and early in 2017 Canon Ivor Moody took over from Canon Carol Smith as chaplain of ECC. This is an important moment for the Cathedral as we seek to strengthen our ties across the networks of the county and region.

Cathedrals deliver much of their mission through the strength of their partnerships, and in recent years across the nation cathedrals have found themselves at the forefront of the church's engagement with wider society. So it is very good today to celebrate one of our most important relationships.

Everyone is warmly welcome to the service this afternoon - a special celebration with those who represent their towns and the city across Essex, and of the role of the Cathedral in the public square.

Study Notes on the Sunday Gospel

Matthew 4: 1-11

Introduction & Context

“Forty days” (v. 2) reminds us of Moses and Elijah, both of whom also fasted for forty days as they prepared for their roles as God’s agents to Israel. All three of the temptations the Devil (“the tempter”, v. 3, “Satan”, v. 10) presents to Jesus are ways of sinning against the great commandment in Deuteronomy 6:5: “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, ... soul, and ... might”. The “heart” was the seat of will, of moral choice; “soul” means life; “might” means possessions. (All Jesus’ answers are from Deuteronomy 6-8.) To change “stones” (v. 3) into bread would be to use his power for his personal benefit. Jesus says that the “word” (v. 4) of God is the chief nourishment. The “holy city” (v. 5) is Jerusalem. Jesus answers: testing God’s protection is a mockery of real martyrdom – and of his sacrifice to come (v. 7). The Devil, evil forces personified, invites Jesus to prefer personal wealth and power over love of God (vv. 8-9). Jesus answers: God is the only god to be worshipped and served (v. 10). The details make the point that Jesus is the perfect lover of God, the ideal Israelite, the founder of a new way of being human.

Once you are settled and are ready to go:

- Read the passage slowly and reflectively, noting anything that particularly strikes you and refer to the notes if they are helpful
- Spend a few moments in quiet reflection
- If you are a group, share your reflections in pairs or as a whole group (remembering that each person will have different perspectives and views on the passage)
- Read the passage for a final time and give thanks to God for the gift of his holy word.

NOTICES & DATES FOR THE DIARY

A very warm welcome to Chelmsford Cathedral especially if you are a visitor or here for the first time. Everything you need for the celebration is contained in the service booklet. Please ask one of the welcome stewards on duty at the doors if you have any questions.

Junior Church meets today, starting at 9.30am in Chapter House. This week's theme is Jesus in the Wilderness.

Yellow Envelopes If you are a UK tax payer, please use a yellow Gift Aid envelope (available at the doors) to increase the value of your donation by 25% at no extra cost to you. Remember to fill in your name, house number and postcode and the date.

Second Hand Books

A reminder that the Flower Guild will be selling books at the coffee mornings from Saturday 1 April in the Cathedral. Unfortunately we are unable to take any more books.

The Electoral Roll will be revised this year between 6 March and 3 April 2017. If you are over 16 and not on the Roll, please complete a form (available near the South door of the Cathedral) and either return it to me at 80 Kelvedon Close, Chelmsford, CMI 4DG or leave it with the Vergers. Existing members do not need to re-apply. Those on the Roll are entitled to take part in the elections at the Cathedral AGM to be held in the Cathedral on Saturday 29 April 2017 at 9.30am. Any queries please contact me on 01245 268596 after 4.30pm. Many thanks, Jackie Dryhurst.

Choirs' Association Quiz (10 March) – Cancelled! Regrettably this event has been cancelled owing to insufficient interest. We are still actively organising a range of fundraising activities to support the Girls' Choir tour to the West Country at the end of the summer holiday. Full details will be provided later but do make a note of Friday 12 May – Wine Tasting evening, Saturday 24 June – Hog Roast and Sunday 2 July – "Scones and Song"!

Thank you so much to all those who came to the cathedral launch of my book 'Songs for the Soul' last Sunday evening. Your support was much appreciated. Copies of the book are now available in the Cathedral bookshop and in the Diocesan bookshop. I'm happy to sign copies if anyone would like that! Ivor Moody

Thursday 9 March 9.30am Cathedral Walking Group

Thought for the day

A little bit of mercy makes the world less cold and more just.

— Pope Francis

Please pray for:

- Sue Cockett, Rosemary Duffin, Julie Liney; all those receiving home communion and all in need of our prayers
- The success of the Bishop's Lent Appeal this year, that people may be moved to give generously
- The Diocese of Marathwada (North India)
- St Augustine of Canterbury, North Springfield

Book Launch

LAST SUNDAY saw the launch of Ivor Moody's book: 'Songs for the Soul'.

Nearly 100 people came to hear the Vice Dean and Bishop Roger Morris speak about the book and the evening was accompanied by songs played on the guitar. Copies of the book are available from the Cathedral bookstall.

Youth Fundraising Meal at TM2

MEMBERS of the youth group, their family and friends met at TM2 for an Indian buffet to raise money for the youth group trip to Sweden, later in the year. Unfortunately for the Cathedral Office, the Vice Dean won the desktop drum kit in the raffle!
