CATHEDRAL LIFE WEEKLY

Eleventh Sunday after Trinity, 7 August 2016

Tapestry Exhibition at Cathedral

A SELECTION OF THE FAMOUS QUAKER TAPESTRY, a stitched masterpiece in story-telling, will be on show for the first time in Chelmsford Cathedral. Described by world traveller and writer Alexander McCall Smith as one of the 'six best tapestries' to see, the travelling exhibition will be on display at Chelmsford Cathedral between 20 August and 3 September.

The panels cover subjects as diverse as peace keeping in Russia, industrial welfare, banking, botany and key events from the early days of the Quaker movement. Twenty of the 77 panels will travel to Chelmsford from their Cumbrian home in Kendal, those on display include Conscientious Objection, Railways and Elizabeth Fry. Produced between 1981 and 1996, they are the work of 4,000 women, children and men from around the world. The collaborative way in which they were made continues to inspire others to make their own tapestries to commemorate special events.

On Sunday 21 August, the exhibition will be exclusively open to congregation members to view between our Sunday services. The exhibition will be open from 10.30am to 11.15am and then from 12.15pm until 2pm. The display is, of course, open Monday to Saturday throughout the exhibition period if you wish to visit at any other time.

Study Notes on the Sunday Gospel

Luke 12.32-40

Introduction & Context

Jesus calls his disciples “little flock” (v. 32), for they are few, and oppressed (see Ezekiel 34). They will be citizens of “the kingdom”. Avoid over-attachment to “possessions” (v. 33) and share what you have with the needy (“give alms”). Emphasize your relationship with God, not material wealth; integrity with him lasts, but wealth ends with the grave. In vv. 35-40, Jesus tells a parable about vigilance and loyalty. Jews expected a great “banquet” when the Messiah came; Christians recognize this banquet as being with Christ, symbolizing our complete union with him. It will inaugurate fulfilment of the kingdom. The “master” (v. 36) is Christ himself: he serves the slaves at the banquet! (“have them sit down ...”, v. 37) (The master will tuck his long Oriental robes into his “belt” to give him freedom of movement to serve them.) Christ, “the Son of Man” (v. 40) like a “thief” (v. 39), may come at any time: you must be ready whenever he comes.

Please pray for:

- Sue Cockett, John and Jean Davies, Rosemary Duffin, Antoin Irtelli, Julie Liney, Frances Muller, David Simmonds, Doreen Trowhill, Janet Wallace; all those receiving home communion, and all in need of our prayers
- The Salvation Army, London North East Division, Major Norman Ord & Major Stephen Huyton
- The Church of South India and the Most Revd Govada Dyvasiradam
- Central Baptist Church

A very warm welcome to Chelmsford Cathedral especially if you are a visitor or here for the first time. Everything you need for the celebration is contained in the service booklet. Please ask one of the welcome stewards on duty at the doors if you have any questions.

There is no Junior Church during the School holidays but there is a crèche in St Cedd's chapel.

Sunday 7 August will be a BLUE ENVELOPE SUNDAY, with money collected in the Blue Envelopes (available from the Stewards on arrival) going to support our African links.

'Striking Out' Exhibition

This week there is an exhibition in the outer north aisle of the Cathedral. Called 'Striking Out', it describes a number of 17th Century Essex dissenters, some of whom were forced to flee across the Atlantic to New England. The exhibition has been created by Linda Brown Easton, the South Porch Librarian, and connects with some of the books from the Knightbridge Collection. The exhibition is set to run between 29 July and 7 August, and access to the displays is free.

Committee Support

The Cathedral is looking for volunteers to support the vital work of its committees. Experience in minute taking would be useful and a passion for detail and procedure essential! If you'd like to contribute to the development of the Cathedral and have a few hours to spare each month, please contact Ruth Collin in the Cathedral Office on 01245 294488 or email Ruth.collin@chelmsfordcathedral.org.uk.

The flower arrangement at the west end of the nave is sponsored this week by Elizabeth Marshall, Catherine and Helen in memory of Mervyn who died on the 6 August 2013.

Tuesday 16 August 10.30am

There will be a country walk of approx. 3.2 miles from Widford Lodge to Galleywood finishing with a pub lunch. Contact Ann Freese 01245 357096 for more details and to book lunch. Everyone welcome.
