CATHEDRAL LIFE WEEKLY

Holy Trinity, Sunday 11 June 2017

The Great Big Sing!

This Monday and Tuesday hundreds of children will fill the Cathedral for this year's 'Great Big Sing' event. Around twelve schools will be represented on each of the days. The morning is spent learning and rehearsing a number of songs, and then after a break for lunch a public performance is given at 1.15pm, to which all are welcome.

Members of the Cathedral's School Visits team will help run the day, and staff from the schools themselves will lead.

Although the singing at 1.15pm is described as a 'performance', it is very much in the form of a service, worshipping God through music and voice.

Anyone wishing to attend is asked to be seated by 1.15pm in the Cathedral. The two events are on 12th and 13th June.

Study Notes on the Sunday Gospel

Matthew 28: 16-end

Introduction & Context

After his resurrection, Jesus has told Mary Magdalene and “the other Mary” (v. 1) to “tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me” (v. 10). Now Jesus appears to “the eleven” (v. 16, less Judas) on “the mountain” where he was transfigured. Some worship (v. 17) him, but others doubt. He has received “all authority” (v. 18) from the Father, so he now sends out his followers to “all nations” (v. 19, not just Israel) to:

- baptise in the possession and protection (“name”) of the Trinity,
- to carry on his teaching ministry.

To help in this daunting task, he is, and will be, with them until the Kingdom of God comes fully.

Once you are settled and are ready to go:

- Read the passage slowly and reflectively
- Note anything that particularly strikes you and refer to the notes if they are helpful
- Spend a few moments in quiet reflection
- If you are a group, share your reflections in pairs or as a whole group (remembering that each person will have different perspectives and views on the passage)
- Read the passage for a final time and give thanks to God for the gift of his holy word.

Thought for the day

It was the whole Trinity, which at the beginning of creation said, "Let us make man". It was the whole Trinity again, which at the beginning of the Gospel seemed to say, "Let us save man". - J C Ryle

Please pray for:

- Jean Cooper, Amanda Corcoran, Rosemary Duffin, Julie Liney, Canon Simon Pothen; all those receiving home communion and all in need of our prayers
- The Chelmsford street pastors
- The family and friends of Jane Hopcraft who died this week
- The Diocese of Northern California & the Rt Revd Barry Beisner

SCHOOL FOR DISCIPLES led by Bishop Stephen here at the Cathedral on Tuesday, 27 June starting at 7pm. Everyone is warmly encouraged to come along to this major initiative.

Thy Kingdom Come

The display remained in the Cathedral until Trinity I, and formed the backdrop to the poetry lunch held last Monday led by David Greenwood (pictured right).

Puritans and Dissenters

Part of the display of information from the exhibition held in the Cathedral last year, has been given to the Little Baddow History Centre and Chapel. The display of information and extracts gives information on the Puritans and Dissenter movements. If you missed the opportunity to see the exhibition in the Cathedral, it is open in Little Baddow from June until August on Wednesday afternoons and Thursday mornings.
