CATHEDRAL LIFE WEEKLY

Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity, 28 August 2016

Breakfast with the Bible - new Autumn series

BREAKFAST with the Bible meets every Sunday of the year between 8.30am and 9.15am in St Cedd's Hall.

Meetings are open to all, in particular those staying on after the 8.00am Communion Service or arriving before the 9.30am Parish Eucharist. Members of other local churches also attend.

A light breakfast and 'proper' coffee or tea are provided and a Bible study with small group conversations at the tables runs for just over half an hour.

A new Autumn series studying the First Letter of Peter begins on 18 September and three of the meetings will be led by

Breakfast with the Bible meeting in St Cedd's Hall

Paul Beasley-Murray, a noted biblical scholar and member of the Cathedral congregation. Cards giving details of the whole series on 1 Peter are available in the Cathedral or from Canon Edward Carter on 01245 294486.

Speaking about Breakfast with the Bible, Edward said: "This is a great opportunity to learn more about the Bible and the Christian faith. It's fine to attend just when you can - why not give it a try this Autumnn."

Study Notes on the Sunday Gospel

Luke 14.1, 7-14

Introduction & Context

The Pharisees believed in the resurrection of the godly at the end of time, and “were watching him closely”. Jesus heals a person on the sabbath (vv. 2-6). We recognize that the “parable” (v. 7) is about membership in the Kingdom. The Greek word rendered as “guests” means apparently chosen or see themselves as chosen. The gathering of God’s elect at the end of time was commonly depicted as a “wedding banquet” (v. 8). There the host is God. The punch line (v. 11) is good manners, but Jesus is drawing a conclusion about the kingdom: attendance depends on God’s invitation. God will not be fooled by self-promotion! Jewish and Greco-Roman societies both spurned the “poor” (v. 13) and the disabled. A Qumran document says that these people will be excluded from the banquet, but Jesus says: share with them! (v. 13) Giving to those unable to “repay” (v. 14) will admit one

Please pray for:

- Sue Cockett, John and Jean Davies, Rosemary Duffin, Antoin Irtelli, Julie Liney, Frances Muller, Janet Wallace; all those receiving home communion and all in need of our prayers
- Alastair Dean, Lydia Goymer and David Robinson; the Cathedral vergers
- The Episcopal Church of South Sudan and Sudan and the Most Revd Dr Daniel Deng Bul Yak, Archbishop
- Chelmsford YMCA, city centre
- The friends and family of Jean Lilian Davies who died on 14 August

A very warm welcome to Chelmsford Cathedral especially if you are a visitor or here for the first time. Everything you need for the celebration is contained in the service booklet. Please ask one of the welcome stewards on duty at the doors if you have any questions.

There is no Junior Church during the School holidays but there is a crèche in St Cedd’s chapel.

The flower arrangement at the west end of the nave is sponsored this week by Janet and Bob Pettifer to celebrate the arrival of their new granddaughter, Lucy May Kerry Pettifer, born 31 July 2016.

Congratulations to John Dean who celebrates his 80th today (28 August).

Committee Support

The Cathedral is looking for volunteers to support the vital work of its committees. Experience in minute taking would be useful and a passion for detail and procedure essential! If you’d like to contribute to the development of the Cathedral and have a few hours to spare each month, please contact Ruth Collin in the Cathedral Office on 01245 294488 or email ruth.collin@chelmsfordcathedral.org.uk.

Saturday 10 Sept. 10am-6pm

The Friends of Essex Churches (FOEC) Ride and Stride Event is taking place and help is required on the Welcome Desk, helping participants and offering light refreshments. If you wish to take part, please see their website for details foect.org.uk/rideandstride/publicityandforms.php

Wednesday 14 Sept. 8.00pm Theological Society Lecture

‘Living out the Call’ a talk by Paul Beasley-Murray. Paul is Chair of Ministry Today, an inter-denominational organisation supporting all in pastoral leadership. He was Senior Minister at Chelmsford Central Baptist Church until 2014 and is now a member of the Cathedral congregation. The meeting takes place in the Chapter House; entry £3.50 on the door.
