LAURENCE LYNDON-JONES

ORGAN

Laurence Lyndon-Jones is Assistant Organist and Director of the Girls' Choir here at Chelmsford Cathedral. Before his appointment at Chelmsford, Laurence was Assistant Director of Music at Coventry Cathedral.

Laurence has given recitals at numerous venues in Oxford as well as at Chelmsford, Chester, Coventry, Ely, Hereford, Lichfield, Liverpool, St Albans, and St Edmundsbury Cathedrals. He has toured abroad as both a soloist and accompanist, and has played recitals at Würzburg Cathedral, St. Catherine's church in Hamburg, the Frauenkirche in Dresden.

In August 2015 Laurence gave a recital at the Festival Europäische Kirchenmusik Schwäbisch Gmünd which was broadcast live on SWR2, and in November appeared as a soloist with the DSO-Berlin at the Berliner Philharmonie.

As an orchestral organist, Laurence has performed with Canzona, the City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra, the English String Orchestra, the Orchestra of the Age of Enlightenment, the Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestra, and the Southbank Sinfonia.

Laurence is also composer of choral music and in 2015 his piece Rorate Caeli reached the final of the New Music for St Paul's composition competition. Laurence is a Fellow of the Royal College of Organists and an Associate of Trinity College London.

A recent recording featuring the Girls' Choir, Cathedral Choir Gentlemen and full Cathedral Choir, in music for the Cathedral's three Patronal Festivals is available to buy from the Cathedral bookshop priced at only £10.

The recording features a mixture of familiar and new music, including pieces written for the Cathedral choirs.

Featuring both Cathedral organs and many singers, and a booklet featuring some of the Cathedral's art, this will make an ideal present or souvenir.
