St Bernards

The Chamber Choir was started in the year 2000 with fifteen girls. They first sang in the school Christmas Concert and then in both the Leigh and Southend Music Festivals winning numerous classes. The choir now has a maximum of forty girls!

They recorded their first CD in 2002 with the acclaimed young pianist, Benjamin Grosvenor. Since, they have made several CD's and have sung with local star of the West End Musical 'Joseph', Lee Mead at the Empire Theatre.

They have also been guests of Southend Choral Society and Gaudemus, as well as performing in their own concerts.

In March 2008 they went on their first tour in Paris where they sang in the church of 'St.Marguerite' and also Disneyland Paris!

They have continued success at the Southend and Ipswich Festivals also singing in St. Pauls Church (known as the Actors' Church) in Covent Garden, London.
