CATHEDRAL LIFE WEEKLY

Birth of the Blessed Virgin Mary,

9 September 2018

Edward & Sarah

The Dean writes

Today we say farewell to Edward and Sarah Carter after six and a half years here at Chelmsford Cathedral. It has been wonderful to have them as neighbours, colleagues and companions in the life of this extraordinary place.

Edward has inhabited his role as Canon Theologian for the Diocese and the Cathedral with characteristic flare and wisdom – provoking us to think, imagine and explore.

Sarah has had a lead role with our uniformed organisations and a crucial role in the development of the English for Women project.

She has also enjoyed being chaplain at John Lewis!

As they move to St Peter Mancroft, the great civic church of Norwich, we say a huge thank you for all they have shared and given, and our heartfelt prayers for the journey ahead!

Study Notes on the Sunday Gospel

Matthew 1.18-23

Introduction & Context

Jesus is the anointed who God has promised. Joseph's and Mary's families have signed a marriage contract but Joseph has not yet taken her (v. 20) into his house. If Mosaic law on sexual relations was fully observed then, Joseph could have brought charges against her, and she could have been stoned to death ("public disgrace", v. 19) for adultery (then including pre-marital sex). Joseph, while observant of the Law ("righteous"), is compassionate: he "planned to dismiss [divorce] her quietly". God had intervened in the birth of some he has chosen – Isaac, Jacob and Samuel – but never before has he replaced the whole male role. Even so, the messenger from God points out Joseph's role: Jesus is legally descended from David through him. In Aramaic and Hebrew, "Jesus" (v. 21) and "he will save" sound similar. Matthew is keen to show that Jesus fulfills God's promise made through Isaiah (v. 22). Through Jesus "God is with us" (v. 23) but Joseph names him Jesus, not Immanuel.

Once you are settled and are ready to go:

- Read the passage slowly and reflectively
- Note anything that particularly strikes you and refer to the notes if they are helpful
- Spend a few moments in quiet reflection
- If you are a group, share your reflections in pairs or as a whole group (remembering that each person will have different perspectives and views on the passage)
- Read the passage for a final time and give thanks to God for the gift of his holy word.

Cursillo Event at Chelmsford Cathedral

CURSILLO AT CHELMFORD CATHEDRAL

The National Conference of Anglican Cursillo came to Chelmsford last weekend. It was a fantastic time of celebration, music, study, testimony, and a great march of witness through the city followed by the Eucharist with Bishop Peter. It ended with a great dinner dance in the nave. Many of the participants worshipped with us on Sunday morning and loved the experience of being part of the Cathedral's life.

Cursillo is a remarkable international community of Christians which seeks to enable Christians to grow through prayer, study and action. It started in Spain in 1944 with simple three day meetings for prayer and study and has now spread across the world.

Two things stand out about the Cursillo way: a deep commitment to sacramental worship around the Eucharist, and a profound openness to the Spirit. And the most striking thing about Cursillo gatherings is a deep sense of joy and celebration.
