CATHEDRAL LIFE WEEKLY

TRINITY 3, 7 July 2019

NEW CHAPLAIN

Jackie Dee Thornton, currently curate at Great Waltham, has just been appointed Chaplain at Anglia Ruskin University, and as part of that role she will also become an Associate Priest here at Chelmsford Cathedral.

The Cathedral already has an excellent relationship with ARU. It has been wonderful to welcome the graduations back to the Cathedral over the last two years. Jackie Dee's appointment is a new step in that relationship.

The purpose of placing the ARU Chaplain is for their support, a spiritual home which can provide a springboard for her work at ARU, much in the same way is Philip Need roots himself in the daily prayer here.

We look forward to welcoming Jackie Dee in the autumn.

Study Notes on the Sunday Gospel

Readings for Trinity 3

Galatians 6.1-16

Psalm 66.1-8

Luke 10.1-11,16-20

Peace to this house!

This Sunday's readings celebrate the grace of Christ's peace, and invite us to become messengers of that peace to all around us.

- In the First Reading, Paul tells the Christians of Galatia that they are a new creation; a new people of God. The 'marks' that matter now are not the marks of circumcision, but those of a new creature who follows the way of the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.
- Today's Psalm reverberates with the joy of a people conscious of God's care.
- In the Gospel story, Jesus speaks of the urgency and magnitude of the task of proclaiming his message to all the peoples. He sends out the 72 disciples to prepare the way for him and to spread his peace. On their return, Jesus reminds the rejoicing disciples that their success lies in his power working through them, not in their own strength.

This week, let us pray to the Father to be shown our mission individually and collectively in our church community, as we are called to become messengers of peace and hope in word and deed.

Tennessee 2020

Singing and Flinging to raise funds for Tennessee 2020 – James Davy, Director of Music, soaks up more than the atmosphere.

The Cathedral Choir are planning a special choir tour to Tennessee in 2020 and are busy raising the funds! Last weekend at the St Cedd's School Fete the boys, accompanied by James Davy on piano, sang some of their repertoire. These pictures capture them taking a well-earned break.

The choristers flinging wet sponges at a very well dressed choir master!

Shedding his shoes, James settled himself down for a thorough soaking. The boys paid 50p a throw and raised £130. Hats off (and shoes, socks, waistcoat and jacket!) to James making it a great day for the choristers and raising funds for Tennessee.

WOMEN IN CLASSICAL MUSIC

The Cathedral Girls' Choir 20th anniversary concert on Saturday evening was a fantastic showcase for their talents and an absorbing exploration of women in classical music.

An extraordinary programme including J S Bach and a new commission alongside both familiar and more challenging music– but the stars were the singers themselves and a wonderful atmosphere in a packed cathedral. A worthy celebration of twenty glorious years! Congratulations!

Sunday, 14 July: Laurence's last Sunday

Next Sunday we will be celebrating Laurence Lyndon-Jones' ministry as Assistant Organist and Director of the Cathedral Girls' Choir here at Chelmsford Cathedral. Laurence is an outstanding musician and a great colleague. We wish him well as he moves on to new horizons!
